Conversion of Handlooms into Powerlooms

'^{l}310. SHRI SHAMIM HASHMI: Will the Minister of TEXTILES be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is $_a$ fact that Government had discontinued its experimental scheme of conversion of handlooms into powerlooms in 1961:

(b) whether it is als$_0$ a fact that .contrary to clear Government policies his Ministry is regularising unauthorised powerlooms; and

(c) if so, what step$_s$ are being templated in this regard SQ as to protect the interests of handlooms weavers?

THE MINISTER OF TEXTILES AND THE MINISTER OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRI •RAM NIWAS MIRDHA): (a) Ye$_s$ Sir.

(b) The Textile Policy 1985 of Government of India aims at removal of structural rigidities in the textile industry and harmonious development of its various sectors. Taking note of the growth of unauthorised powerlooms in the past on account of certain economic advantages enjoyed by them, the Textile Policy stipulates that powerloomg i$_n$ th$_e$ organised mill sector and in th$_e$ unorganised powerloom sector shall, as far as possible, be treated at par. In the context of the unplanned growth of powerlooms in the unorganised sector, the Textile Policy further stipulates compulsory registration of powerlooms.

(c) The Textile Policy envisages that effective measures would be taken to see that the powerlooms do not encroach upon articles reserved for exclusive production on handlooms. Accordingly in order to protect the interest $_0$f the handloom sector the Central Government have reserved 22 item$_s$ of cotton, silk, wool and blends for execlusive production in the handloom sector under the provisions of the Handlooms (Reservation of Articles for Production) Act, 1985. Central Government has also set up Enforcement Machinery to implement the Reservation Order$_s$ and is assisting the State Governments in settin? up o* similar Enforcement Machinery.
